Make like a Madrileño and take a paseo por la noche, a cherished evening stroll. Puerta del Sol, the heart of the city, is a busy plaza where you can find street performers, loads of restaurants and shops and the iconic statue 'The Bear and the Strawberry Tree'.

Gran Vía, also known as the street that never sleeps, is the main shopping and tourist artery in the centre of the capital. On this lively strip you'll find great restaurants, theatre, shopping and more. Look up – the buildings are exquisite. Calle Cava Baja is the city's famed tapas street. Patatas bravas, anyone?

Please note: Some flights may depart the day before.

*Check in: Passengers will be arriving at various times throughout the day from as early as 6am through to late evening. If arriving prior to standard check-in time, which is generally 3pm local time, you are welcome to leave your luggage with hotel reception and explore your surroundings until check-in becomes available, as there are generally no scheduled activities on Day 1 of the itinerary. ## DAY 2

Destination	Madrid 🚗 Córdoba 🚗 Seville
Meals included	Breakfast, Dinner
Hotel	4 ★ Meliá Lebreros, or similar

This morning, meet your tour guide and the rest of your group. We'll leave Madrid this morning and drive along La Mancha, land of Don Quixote. We'll make a brief stop at a typical site in Puerto Lápice to admire these landscapes immortalised in the world's first modern novel.

We'll cross through the natural border of Despeñaperros and head into sunny, enchanting Andalusia. This is a region of enormous history and heritage, being occupied by the Romans, the Moors and finally Christians. It's the home of passionate flamenco, not just a famous dance, but a genuine Spanish art form. It's known for bullfighting, beautiful beaches, great food and dreamy landscapes, with charming whitewashed villages. Think Mediterranean coastline, bright sun and perfect blue skies.

We'll stop in Córdoba for a tour of its impressive mosque, the Mezquita, a magnificent piece of Islamic architecture. Over 850 columns with decorated arches crisscross the ceiling of this ancient structure. We'll see other sites and stroll through the narrow winding streets of the Jewish Quarter.

In the afternoon, it's about a two hour journey to reach dynamic, charming Seville. Enjoy dinner at your hotel.

TOUR ITINERARY

DAY 3

Destination	Seville
Meals included	Breakfast, Dinner
Hotel	4 ★ Meliá Lebreros, or similar

After breakfast, we'll enjoy a panoramic city tour this morning. You'll see the exterior of the majestic Seville Cathedral, the largest Gothic building in Europe. See the Santa Cruz quarter – the perfect scene for the masterpiece Carmen, as well as precisely where the myth of libertine Don Juan developed. You'll also see Maria Luisa Park and Plaza de España, on the edge of the park.

The afternoon is free for you to explore the sounds and flavours of this enigmatic city. The Giralda Tower stands 104 metres above the city – you can climb to the top for sweeping views over the red-tiled roofs of Seville. The Moorish influence here is undeniable, as you'll see if you visit the Alcázar of Seville, an elaborate fortress and palace with beautiful formal gardens. It's one of the oldest palaces still in use in the world.

The food of Seville won't disappoint. All your favourites are here; paella, gazpacho, churros. Seville is home to traditional favourites like carrillada (pork cheek), cazón en adobo (shark in a Moorish marinade) and espinacas con garbanzos (spinach and chickpeas) – the name might sound unimaginative but the dish is certainly not!

Enjoy dinner at your hotel.

DAY 4

This iconic blue gate is the entrance to the old medina, where you'll take a walking tour. Walk in the narrow maze-like streets of the city passing artisans at work, vendors selling leather and oils, and locals gathering to eat, shop and pray. Be enticed by the alluring scents and brilliant colours of the spice markets, the sounds of the musicians, the rich folds of carpets, delectable foods, acrobats and perfumed gardens. Marrakech won't disappoint – it's eclectic, beautiful and a modern fusion of Moroccan and international culture.

DAY 8

Destination	Marrakech
Meals included	Breakfast, Dinner
Hotel	5 ★ Atlas Medina & Spa, or similar

A day of sightseeing starts with the Koutoubia Mosque; its famous minaret is the prototype for others of its kind around the world, including La Giralda in Seville. The mosque is surrounded by beautiful gardens.

We'll stop by the 19th-century masterpiece of Moroccan architecture, Bahia Palace. This vast complex was intended to be the greatest palace of its time and there is much to admire, like incredibly detailed mosaics, ornately decorated arches, exquisite ceilings and lush gardens.

overwhelming. The walls surrounding the medina, made of a distinct orange-red clay and chalk, were built in the 12th century.

Famous Jemaa el-Fnaa is the main square of Marrakech in the heart of the medina. It's big and frantic, with scores of people shopping, eating, getting henna tattoos and watching snake charmers. Packed with locals and tourists alike, it's certainly memorable.

You'll have free time before dinner at the hotel. Make like a local and sip sweet mint tea at a cafe as you watch the world go by.

DAY 9

Destination	Marrakech 🚗 Casablanca 🚗 Rabat
Meals included	Breakfast, Dinner
Hotel	5 ★ Hôtel Farah Rabat, or similar

Enjoy a panoramic tour of the city's highlights, including Anfa Boulevard, local homes and United Nations Square, a busy city square. We'll see the outside of the glorious Hassan II Mosque – the second largest mosque in the world, it took more than seven years to build.

In the afternoon we'll depart for the historic town of Rabat, diplomatic and administrative capital. Rabat's history is long, having been host to Roman settlements, pirates and more recently the Moroccan parliament. It contains numerous fine Arab monuments, some dating from the 10th to 15th century Almohad and Marinid dynasties, and others that are far older.

DAY 10

Destination	Rabat 🚗 Tangier

Hotel	5 ★ Hilton Tanger City Center Hotel & Residences, or similar

This morning we'll see the sights of Rabat on a guided tour, starting with the royal palace – the official residence of the King of Morocco. We'll see the unfinished Hassan Tower – once intended to be the world's tallest minaret and largest mosque – and the Mausoleum of Mohammed V, a striking masterpiece of modern Moroccan architecture.

In the afternoon we'll head for the coastal town of Tangier, Europe's gateway to Africa. Being just a short boat ride from Spain, it boasts an interesting mix of African and European influences.

After a short panoramic tour, you'll have free time in this cosmopolitan city. Its medina, a star attraction, is everything you'd expect – lively, with the typical narrow, maze-like alleyways of shops, teahouses and homes. A great place to people watch is the Grand Socco, a large square at the main entrance of the medina and a popular meeting place.

You might visit the ancient kasbah, located high on a hill with pretty ocean views. The old Sultan's palace (built in the 17th century) lies within these high walls. The Kasbah Museum is a great place to learn about Morocco's tumultuous, complicated history.
