TOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1

Destination	Flagstaff
Meals included
Hotel	Hotel n Flagstaff, or similar

Your adventure begins in Flagstaff, Arizona, your gateway to the Grand Canyon. A wonder of the natural world, the Grand Canyon is undoubtedly one of the most remarkable places on our planet, and there's no better way to explore it than on foot. A welcome meeting will take place at 5pm tonight so you can meet your local leader and fellow travellers and be briefed on the days ahead. If you arrive early, you may like to check out the The Arboretum at Flagstaff to discover the desert plants of the region, or head out to the Wupatki National Monument to learn about the area's Native American History. This evening, perhaps get to know your group over dinner together in town.

DAY 2

Destination	Flagstaff 🚗 Grand Canyon National Park
Meals included	Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Hotel	Hotel in Grand Canyon, or similar

Rise and shine for your first day walking the Grand Canyon. Drive from Flagstaff to the South Rim of the Grand Canyon (approximately 4 hours) and be greeted by a view so amazing you'll never get used to it. Pay a visit to the Desert View Watchtower, a stone structure built to replicate the Native American tower that once stood in the same spot centuries ago.

Continue to the Grandview Trail, built by miners in the late 1800s. Hit the trail and hike past epic views of the Colorado River and the canyon it carved out. As you walk, your leader will fill you in on the secrets of the landscape and its history. Once you've completed the hike, drive on to the North Rim of the Grand Canyon, stopping en route to cross the Old Navajo Bridge suspended 467 feet above the water. Take some time to get to know this side of the canyon before setting up camp for the evening and reminiscing about the day's discoveries over dinner.

Included Activities:

- Grandview Trail of the South Rim
- Old Navajo Bridge visit
- Desert View Watchtower

Special Information:

- Today's walks will cover approximately 3-6 miles with 1200-2500 ft elevation loss/gain.

DAY 3

Destination	Grand Canyon National Park
Meals included	Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Hotel	Hotel in Grand Canyon, or similar

Enjoy a leisurely breakfast in the peace and quiet of your campsite, then set out for another exciting day. Head to a lesser-explored trail – it's so beautiful it's a surprise the trail's not better known, but that's good for you, as you'll likely have the whole thing to yourselves! The remote track winds through pine forests before giving way to a rocky outcrop hanging over the canyon, offering up cinematic views in all directions.

TOUR ITINERARY

Without the crowds, this is the perfect spot to snap some pictures or just take a moment to soak it all in. Depending on the interests of the group, you'll have the chance to hike for another mile or two into the canyon. After the day's hikes are done, you'll enjoy a well-earned outdoor dinner at a truly magical viewpoint – al fresco dining doesn't get much better than this!

Included Activities:

- North Rim off-the beaten track hike

Special Information:

- Today's walks will cover approximately 7 miles with 500 ft elevation.

DAY 4

Destination	Grand Canyon National Park
Meals included	Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner
Hotel	Hotel in Grand Canyon, or similar

Fuel up for the day with a hearty breakfast then make the short drive to today's trailhead. Hit the trail and weave through the gorgeous pine and aspen trees on the high North Rim, sitting at an elevation of 8000ft. Your leader will point out ancient fossil beds as you pass, while also discussing the fascinating flora and fauna which stands in stark contrast to the surrounding desert landscapes.

Be sure to keep an eye out for deer, elk, coyotes, foxes, mountain lions and half-breed wild buffalo, which have all been known to roam these parts. Continue to the edge of the canyon, then venture along the North Rim towards a marvellous viewpoint. Take some time out to enjoy a picnic lunch in a spot where you can really appreciate the sheer scale of the Grand Canyon. Explore further around the rim, then return along the same trail.

Included Activities:

- High North Rim hike to the edge of the Canyon
- Meals Included

Special Information:

- Today's walks will cover approximately 5 miles with minimal elevation.

DAY 5

Destination	Grand Canyon National Park 🚗 Flagstaff
Meals included	Breakfast, Lunch
Accommodation	N/A

It's time to pack up camp, then go and check out a slightly different style of accommodation – the famous Grand Canyon Lodge. Stop here to admire the view from the lodge's panoramic windows, then begin the hike down the much-loved North Kaibab Trail, heading towards the Coconino Overlook or the Supai Tunnel, allowing you to walk through the rocks of the canyon.

TOUR ITINERARY

The plant life here is just as interesting as the rock formations – descend from a mixed conifer forest on the rim that gives way to a dry Sonoran desert landscape. Once your hike is over, begin the drive back to Flagstaff (approximately 4.5 hours) and take some time to think back on all you've seen and accomplished over the last four days. Your adventure will come to an end upon your arrival in Flagstaff.

Included Activities:

- Grand Canyon Lodge visit
- North Kaibab Trail to Coconino Overlook walk

Special Information:

- Today's walks will cover approximately 1.5-4 miles with 600-1441 ft elevation loss/gain.
